Victory Was Just Half of It

What has women's lib. done for the girls' athletic program?

What do you see in the future?

Kim: It's gotten us tournaments. It makes the girls feel like they're stronger and can do more than they could.

Jennifer: Now we can play basketball and we don't have to play with dolls all day long. We can do things we want to do and be competitive, not sit around and watch guys play sports.

Is there room for improvement? In what way?

Liz: Rebounding, defense, foul shooting, mental mistakes. You've got to keep everybody in good shape mentally.

The members of the Mount Vernon Semi-State basketball team are: Darlene Kessler, Sandy McKeeman, Betsy Kappes, Lee Ann Rose, Peggy Little, Kim Mansour, Betsy Blake, Ann Bordenkecher, Jennifer Hanson, Liz Skinner, Barb Skinner, JoDe Blaker, Patti Kappes, and Mrs. Carolyn Oldfather.

How important were the fans in your tourney games?

Peggy: When we won, victory was just half of it. The other half was the fact that we were sharing it with our friends.

Jennifer: You wouldn't believe it. See, we're sitting there in the Regionals in the time-out right before the game. Barb just looked up at all those people and said, "You guys, they really want us to win." So we decided to win.

Barb: They had a lot of influence, especially when we got behind. They stuck behind us and helped us with our thoughts and kept us going so we wouldn't fold.

What has all this excitement done for you personally?

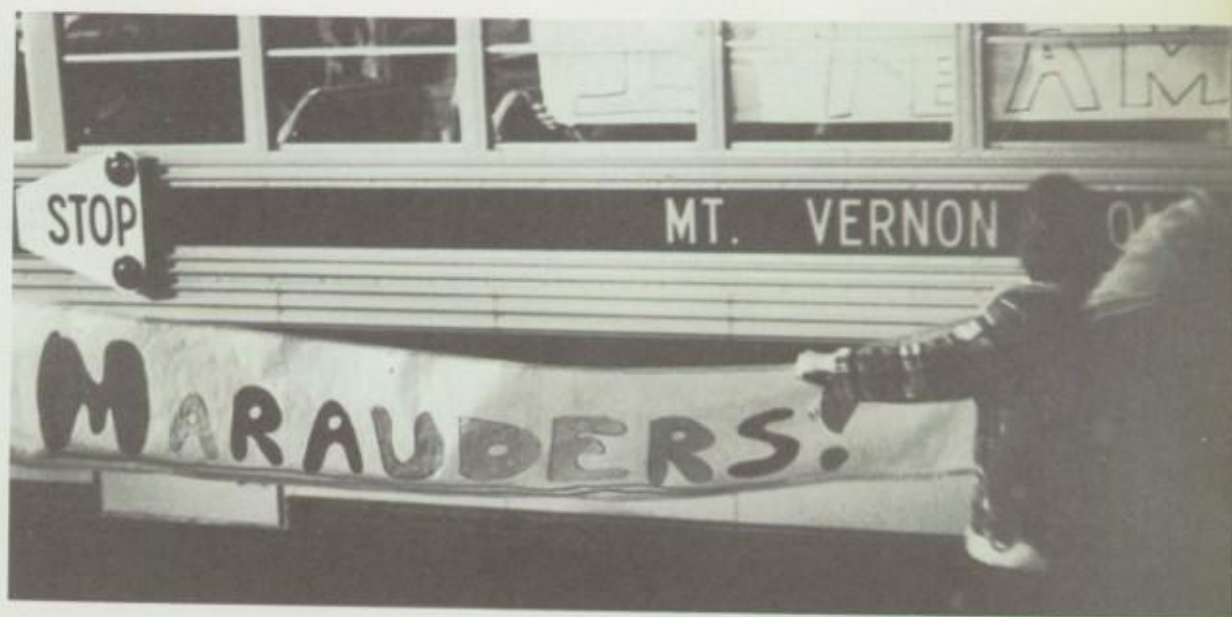

Jennifer: I had a cake for lunch, Mrs. Bills carried out my tray, I got cupcakes on the bus, and my room was cleaned up by my mom and decoated.

What do you think made the team as good as it was?

Barb: Playing together as a team and nobody showboating or trying to be the leading scorer.

In the tourney games there was a definite lack in height. How did you compensate for this weakness?

Lee Ann: A lot of hustle, moving the ball quickly and working it to the inside.

Every time you girls go out to play, you never slow the ball down. It's always a fast-paced game. Why?

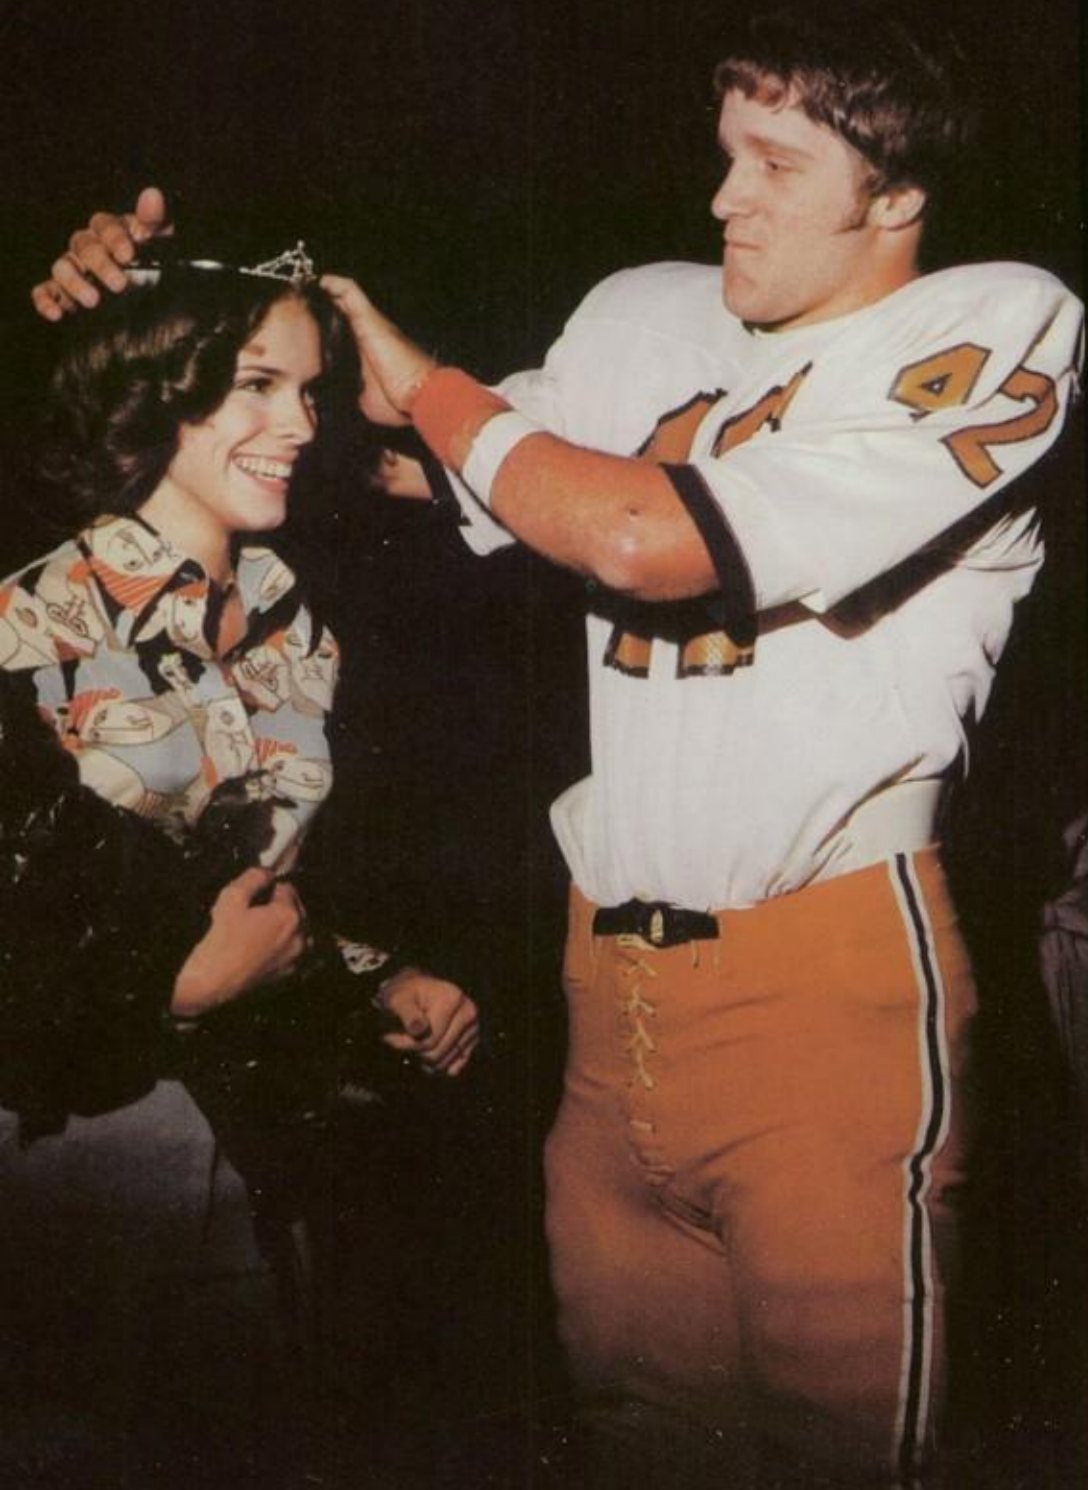

JoDe: We're a running team. We like to move the ball fast, keep the ball moving. We just don't like to play a slow offense, or a slow defense for that matter. We'd just as soon go out and get the ball and score and steal the ball from the other team and score again.

Peggy: We were in a hurry to get the game over.

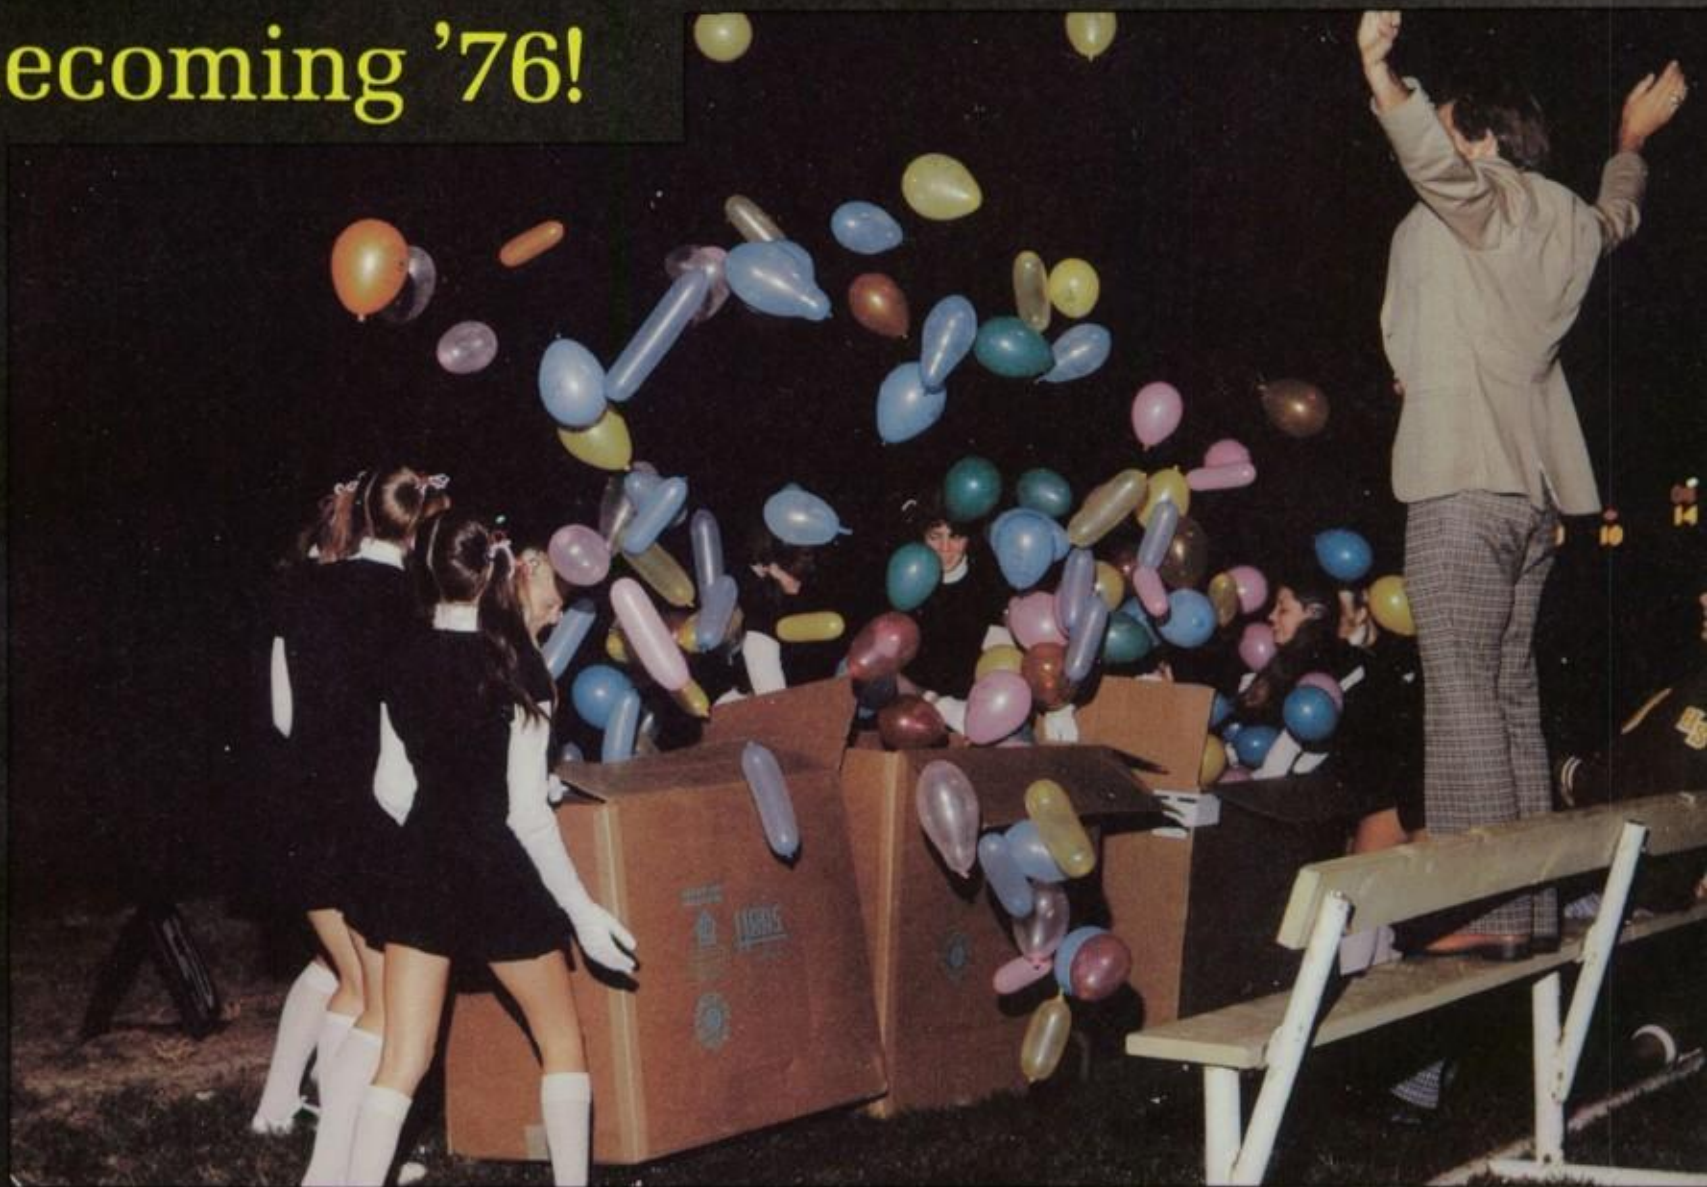

Homecoming '75 found the Marauders victorious with a score of 29-16 against the Yorktown Tigers. The festivities surrounding the game were based on the Bicentennial. The sophomores took first place honors in the mini-float contest. The Art Club came in first in the walking float contest. During halftime the band and pom pon girls performed a Bicentennial routine complete with balloons and red, white, and blue flags.

The Sunshine Society attempts to fry the Yorktown Tigers in their patriotic skillet.

Homecoming '76!

The Homecoming court is Bruce Gibson and Sheryl Baker, Phil Bailey and Nancy Fields, Dan Simmons and Queen Joyce Posey, Dan Vail and Amy Wood, Brain Cothard and Marcia Bennett.

Homecoming '76 was preceded by a week of flurried preparation and excitement. There were floats to be made, windows to be decorated and costumes to be put together. Spirit Week was marked by Senior Citizens Day, Crazy Hats Day, and Bicentennial Day, during which students came to school dressed in appropriate attire. The usual Homecoming dance was held on Thursday night, and the traditional Field Day on Friday afternoon. After engaging in games such as the tug of war, powder puff football, pyramid building, and class yells, the seniors and sophomores emerged in a tie as the winners.

Working in auto shop are: Bob Bowles, Phil Doyle, Steve Kelly, Bill Kendrick, Jim Jacobi, and Larry Mayes.

For those students enrolled in the Anderson Area Vocational Technical School's 1975-1976 Program the year was full of surprises and a great deal of work. Learning a trade took much effort and time. Two and a half hours each day were spent by these students at the Area School. These skills included everything from tuning an engine to operating a cash register, to programming a Data Computer. Several students participated in contests in the areas of study they had chosen. Janet Loucks and Jan Hippelheuser advanced from their district levels in Key Punch Operation, and Newspaper Ad Layout respectively into state competition. For some, this training was only a starting point as they searched for their life's work. For others it was the final step in a long line of decisions.

HELLO DOLLY

The cast includes David Stunda as Barnaby Tucker, Molly Humbles as Minnie Fay, Don Corzine as Horace Vandergelder, and Debbie Wright as Dolly Gallagher Levi. JoDe Blaker portrays Ernestina Money, David Hutsell is Ambrose Kemper, Ermengarde is played by Susan Brown, Skip Ford is Cornelius Hackel, and Karen Cecil is Irene Molloy.

Ambrose and Ermengarde talk about marriage as they take a stroll.

Dolly and Ambrose discuss plans for the train to New York during the song "Call on Dolly".

Dolly dances with the waiters in the song "Hello, Dolly".

Mt. Vernon students also received learning outside the classroom. Convocations were not numerous but those that were given were interesting. At one convocation a lesson in fire prevention and safety was given. Another convocation brought in the world of Physics as presented by Purdue University.

Field trips also added enrichment to the Marauders' education. They included a trip to Ball State by the Earth Science classes, Indianapolis Repertory Theater by the English classes, the State House by the government classes, and by the Latin Club which visited Butler University.

Students mill their way to the football field for the homecoming convocation.

Terri Hoover has a hair-raising experience during the Purdue demonstration.

Steve Roach finds the shop class' trip to International Harvester an intellectual experience.

Convo's and Field Trips

Winners

Three determined young wrestlers decided to go to the top, with or without the cooperation of their opponents. Vince Allor, Brian Lowder, and Ted Eastes won at the Greenfield Sectional and advanced to the Regional. After a powerful effort Brian advanced to the Semi-State contest at Ben Davis. To send them on their way, the student body vocalized their support during a rousing pep session.

Snowflakes by Starlight

Members of the Snow Whirl court include Brenda Bangel and escort David Blanton, Janie Bolander and escort Jeff Silvester, Denise Fuchs being escorted by Paul Humbles, Jeannie Fenter and escort David Merlau, Eric Bryd escorting Celia Colvard, Queen Marcia Bennett and her escort Larry Gallet, last year's queen Becky Virgin, Mark Worthington escorting Lori Ramsey, Cindy Lamar and escort Bryan Kelly, and Sheryl Varnell escorted by Tom Cairns.

On the cold, clear, windy night of December 20, 1975, at 8:00 pm, the Sunshine Society's annual Snow Whirl got under way. After hours of feverish preparation the school cafeteria was transformed into a glimmering dance hall. Candle light, soft music, silver stars, snow flakes, and starred streamers helped to carry out this year's theme of "Snowflakes by Starlight." The soft romantic music of the Pike High School Dance Band filled the air as many couples danced away the evening. Marcia Bennett was crowned the 1975 Snow Whirl Queen. As the last song lingered and the dim lights died into darkness, those in attendance left for late dinners and a quiet end to a memorable evening.

Christmas at Mt. Vernon would also not have been complete without the annual Christmas Program put on by the music department. The magic of the season was reflected not only in the decorations around the school and the prevailing atmosphere of yuletide, but in the joyous and sacred music that the choir and band performed.

M.V. Christmas

THE MIRACLE WORKER

Percy (Rick Carter) and Martha (Melody Lowder) play innocently with Helen.

The second play of the year was The Miracle Worker. A tense drama with just a touch of comedy, it was performed March 17 and 18 to full houses both nights. This intriguing play was about the early life of Helen Keller and her struggle to get in touch with the outside world. A unique stage design and ingenious light combinations added to the strong performances of the cast. Members not pictured included Don Corzine as Anagnos, JoDe Blaker as the doctor, Paula Lawhead as Viney, and the blind girls: Jude Noppenberger, Julie Blaker, Alicia Noppenberger, Marcy Blackwell, and Susy Stevens.

A quiet, emotional scene takes place at the garden house.

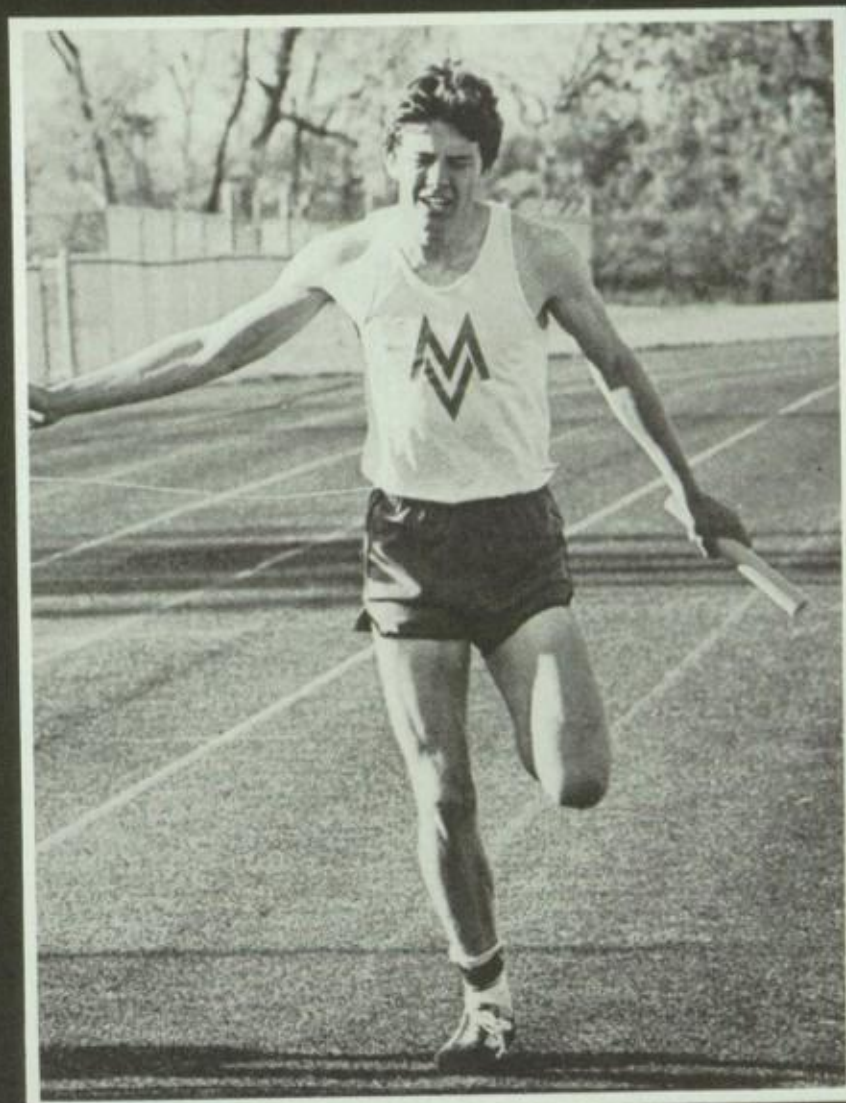

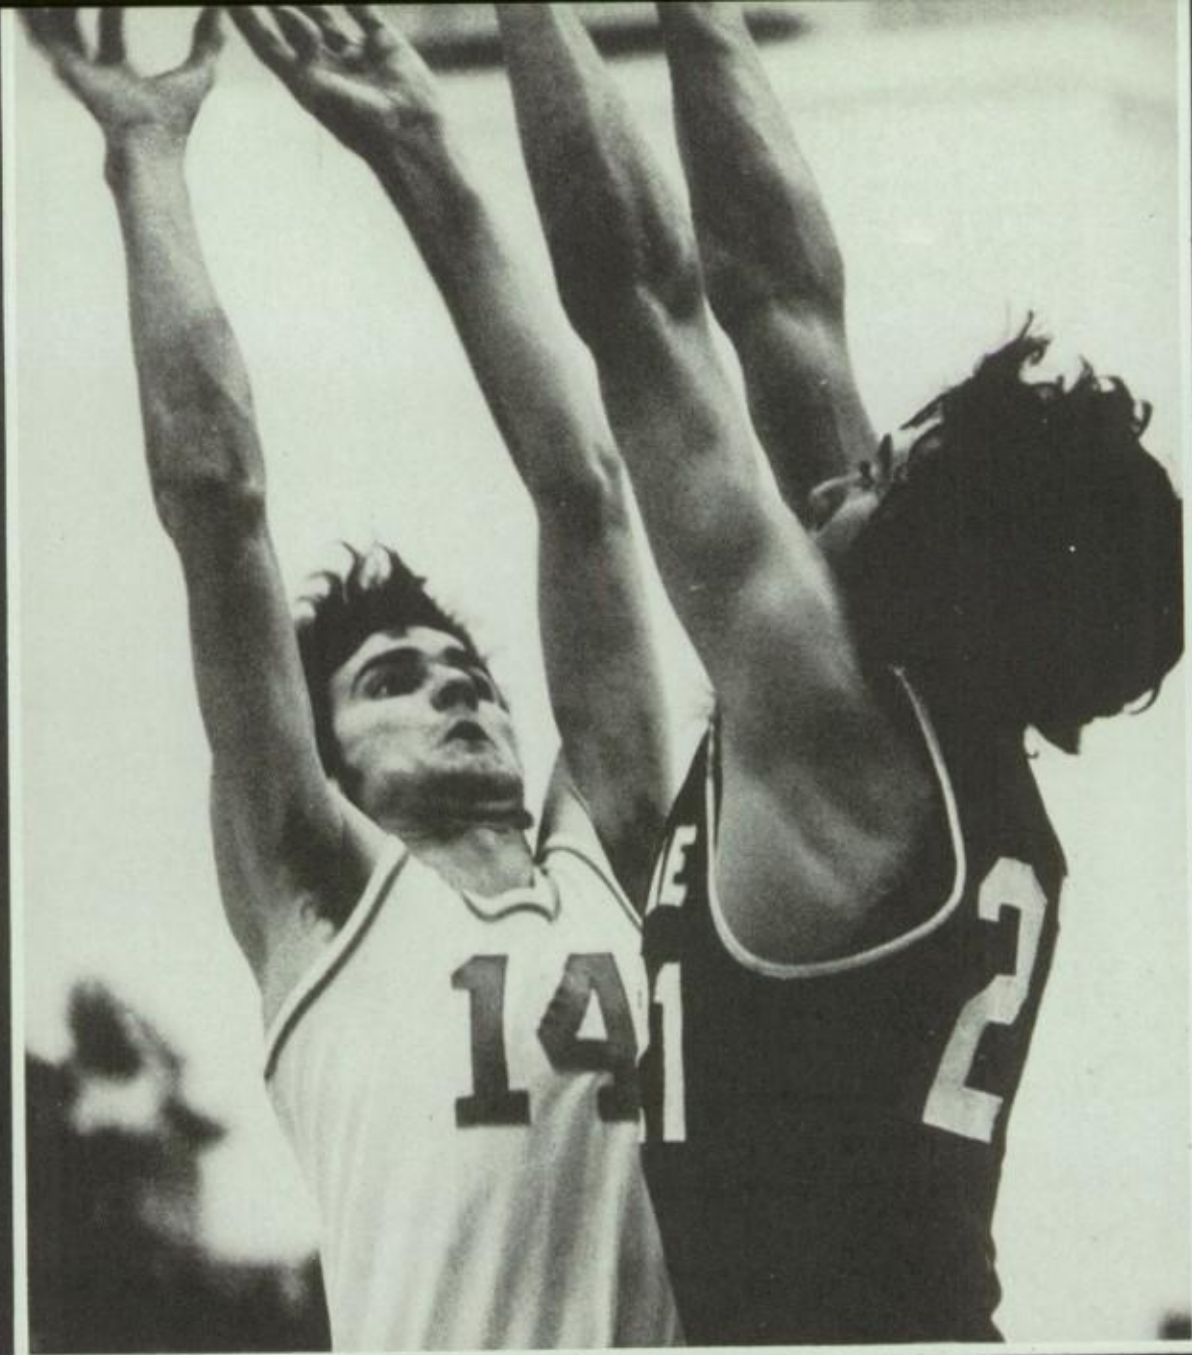

A chivalrous Captain Keller tries to persuade Annie to come down the ladder.

Mrs. Stadler, director of both The Miracle Worker and Hello Dolly gives last minute instructions to the cast before the production.

The major characters are: Kate Keller (Karen Saindon), Annie Sullivan (Susan Brown), Helen Keller (Molly Humbles), James Keller (David Stunda), Captain Keller (Skip Ford), and Aunt Ev (Valerie Salzmann).

A sudden flash of awareness opens the way to Helen's learning.

Refreshments are served to tide one over between dances.

The many empty chairs are a sure sign that dancing is still a popular pasttime.

Mt. Vernon's "touch of class" for 1976 was the Junior-Senior Prom. "This Magic Moment", the theme of the dance, came for Paul Humbles and Joyce Posey when they were crowned king and queen of the prom. Decorations of blue and silver enhanced the Miramir Club. The tables were dressed with small floating candles which served to romanticize the atmosphere. "Lady and Friends", a four piece dance band, filled the auditorium with pop and rock music as well as the traditional. Monogram served refreshments throughout the evening. Candlelight bathed the dance floor as many couples whirled through "This Magic Moment" which would never come again.

The Prom Court is: Beth Brown, Jaime Arnett, Marie Brown, Mike Hartman, 1975 Queen Becky Fentz, 1975 King Barry Cole, Queen Joyce Posey, King Paul Humbles, Tammy Shultz, Dan Vail, Nancy Fields, Dan Simmons.

To highlight the evening, Becky Fentz crowns Joyce Posey Queen.

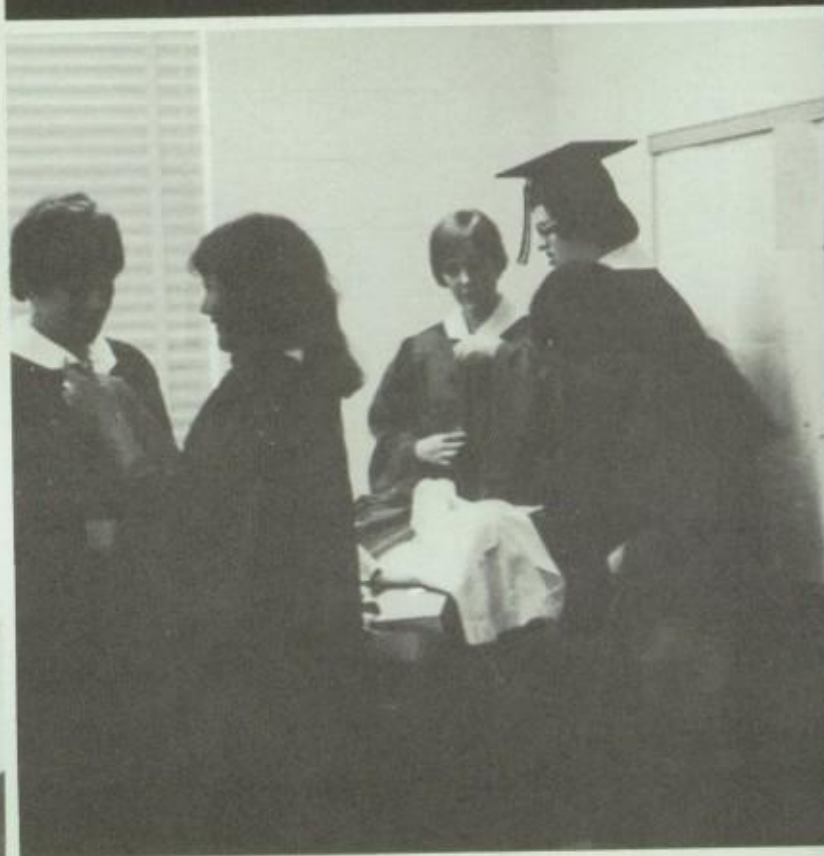

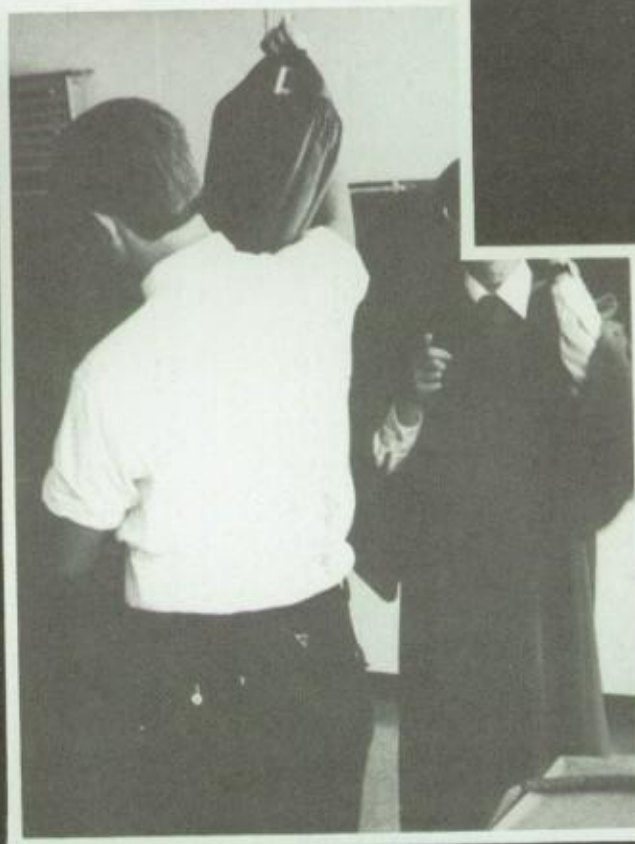

This Magic Moment

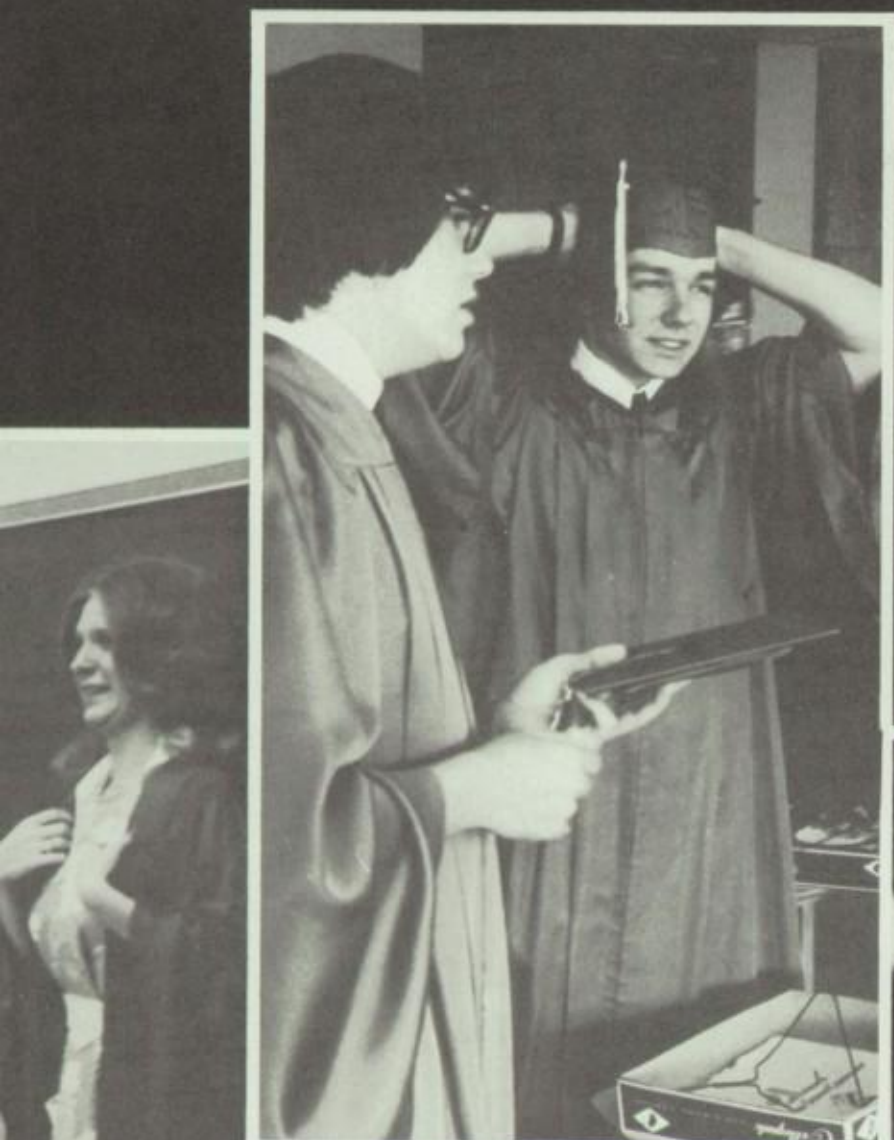

Tears fill Joyce's eyes as she dances with her escort, Dan Simmons.

The warm, windy day of Sunday, May 23, 1976, saw 148 students take a giant step into the realm of adulthood. As the Class of 1976 prepared to graduate, thoughts of the future flashed through many of their minds. How they would spend the rest of their lives would be determined by this moment. Their class motto, "Free to be what I am with the hope of becoming what I was intended to be," confirmed their beliefs.

The 1975 Marauders under first year coach Dave Marendt had a very impressive six wins, four losses in this season. The Marauders, underdogs all season, proved themselves with an unexpected five win, one loss White River Conference second place finish.

The Marauders were led by senior running back, Mike Hartman, and sophomore place kicker, Tom Hillsman. Mike set a new school rushing record for a single season as he carried the ball 195 times for a total of 1,137 yards. Tom set three new school records: longest field goal of twenty-three yards; the most field goals, scoring three of them; and the most points after touchdowns, totaling fifteen.

SPIKE

The Marauder girls battled their way to another successful season behind the net. Mrs. Cook and the volleyball team demonstrated their enthusiasm by beginning practices long before school opened its doors. After the girls struggled through the hot summer and early fall practices, their efforts were rewarded with an 8-4 season.

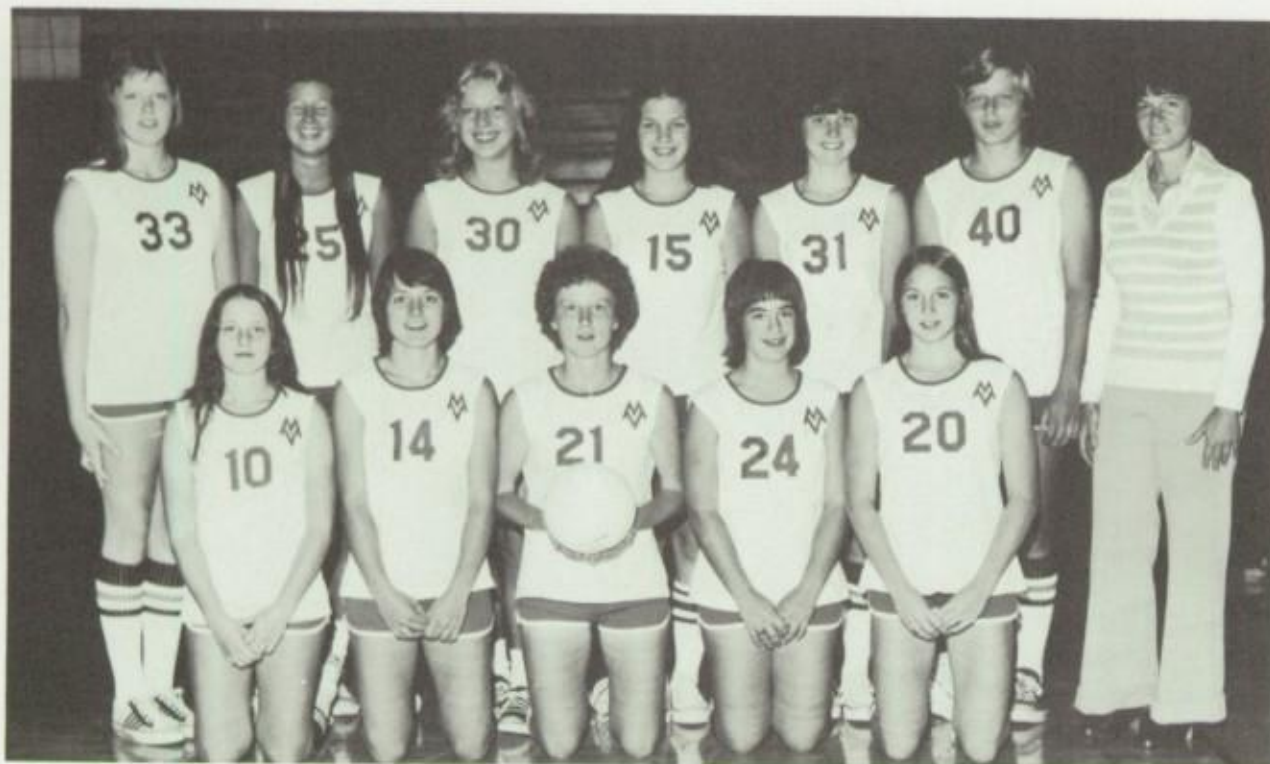

The opponents of the Sectional were not prepared for the Marauders' on-slaught as the girls easily won their first two matches. The final game was close, but Greenfield came away with the victory and the trophy.

The Mt. Vernon varsity basketball team was the victim of a disappointing season. The Marauders of the hardwood were in the process of rebuilding as they had no returning starters. The boys finished with a 3-16 record, but they always accepted each defeat with a grain of salt and looked forward to the thrill, excitement, and sportmanship of the next confrontation. The boys never let the opponents have an easy road to victory and many of their games were decided by very small margins. The boys played an extremely courageous season against more experienced teams.

The Mt. Vernon girls' basketball team proved they would let nothing stand in the way of a winning season. The girls ended with a 9-2 record as they prepared to enter the first IHSA girls' basketball tournament. Each girl added her own special skills and spirit to the roster but no team is complete without a coach. Mrs. Carolyn Oldfather filled this role. The long hours spent in practicing and strategy sessions became more and more vital as Mrs. Oldfather and the girls advanced to the final game of the Semi-State before meeting defeat. In that breathtaking final game the Tech Titans held a comfortable 18 point lead at halftime. But Mrs. Oldfather's locker room pep talk, as it had done all season, provided the spark necessary for the girls to cut the deficit to six points by the time the final buzzer sounded.

1976 yielded the mighty Marauders' best season in wrestling. For the first time in Mount Vernon history the wrestling team saw not one, not two, but three muscular Marauders leave their, Sectional, victorious and enter the Regional. Ted Eastes and Vince Allor were both stopped there, but Brian Lowder was not out of the competition until after the Semi-State.

With senior Bob True and sophomore Herb Kramer leading the pack, the route around Fortville Park became less challenging after each meet. In the summer of '75 the MV baseball team, along with players from surrounding schools, formed a Connie Mack team. This was the first year for such a state tourney, and the Marauders marched triumphantly to take the state championship.

The '76 team had a rather uneventful year. Working hard all season to raise their standings, the team saw improvements through the achievements of several players.

HOMERUN

ACTIVITIES

Stepping out for a victory are freshman cheerleaders: Debbie Summers, Marcie Noe, Darcy Whitaker, Christie Denton, Tammy Sparks.

A real boost for victory comes from Angie Rees, Tammy Schultz, Melody Lowder, and Nancy Fields, the varsity cheerleaders.

Members of Youth in Action for Christ are: Andi Doud, Lori Ramsey, Jeanne Fenter, Jo Annette Apple, Joyce Posey, Jackie Goff, Donna Prickett, Skip Ford.

The Sunshine Society visited with local nursing home patients and shutins, and also presented favors to the faculty. Other activities included the Ideal Ladies Tea for the SSS members, their mothers, and the girls' Ideal Lady, and the first annual Faculty Appreciation Breakfast which was prepared and served by the girls. The biggest event of the year was the annual Sunshine-sponsored Snow Whirl which carried out the theme "Snowflakes by Starlight."

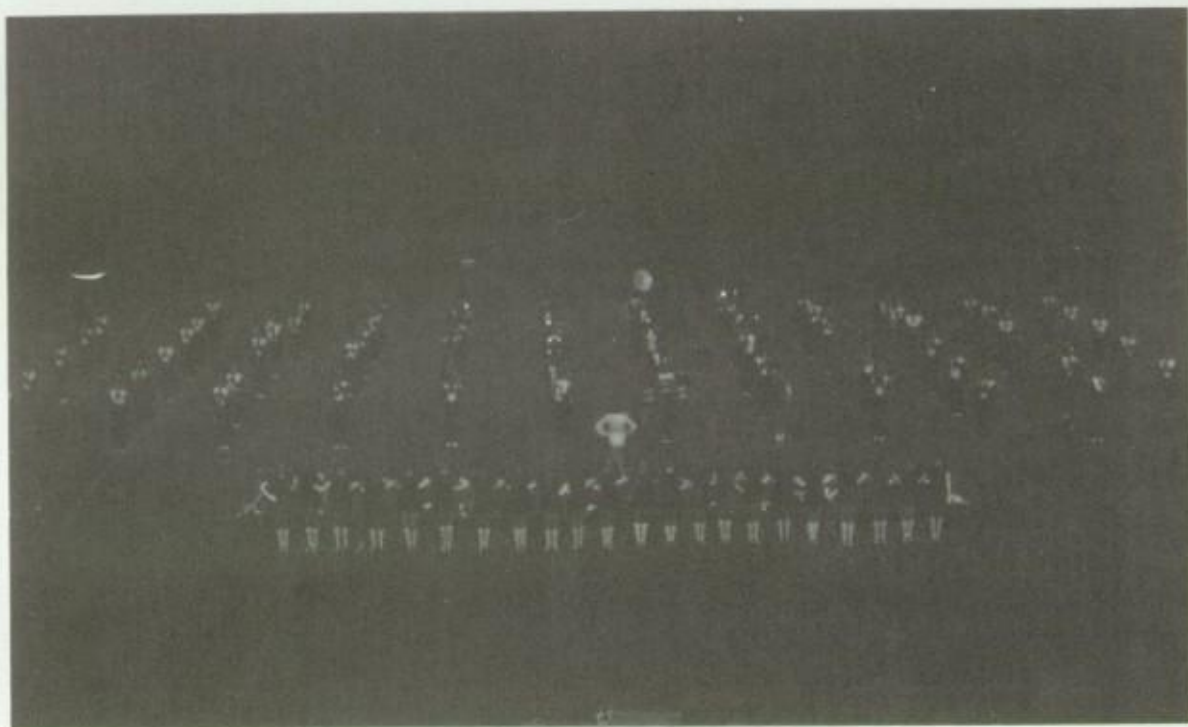

Youth in Action for Christ is an organization of high school students designed to help bring to light the meaning of Christ in their own individual lives. This light was shown as they reached out to bring a little cheer into the lives of the persons at Crescent Manor Nursing Home with surprises and gifts at Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Instrumental

If one plans to become a good band member, many hours of practice and rehearsal must be devoted to this musical undertaking. This was the observation made by each band member as they struggled through year-round practice. Starting early in the summer with band camp at Northwood Institute, the group slowly and painstakingly joined talents to form the 180 piece band. Of course those hours of rehearsal were not to go unrewarded. They appeared at the State Fair for Farmer's Day and performed in the streets of Fortville and other communities.

The annual Extravaganza was not the only on stage performance this year. They accompanied the choir in a Christmas show and the pit band, directed by Mr. Tom Stadler, used its talents for Hello Dolly.

Band members are Jaime Arnett, Bob Asher, Marcia Bennett, Karen Cecil, Dianne Driscoll, Gary Durack, Larry Gallet, Terri Hamm, Paul Humbles, Robert Spencer, Karen Saindon, Janie Bolander, Susie Clements, Steve Collins, Wayne Hammack, Teresa Heiny, Darla Jones, Mel Lowder, Candy Olson, Anita Ostermeyer, Tim Rafert, Mary Schutt, Bev Scott, Janyce Shupperd, Steve Vail, Kenny Wallsmith, Tim Waymire, Jeff Alden, Jo Annette Apple, JoDe Blaker, Paul Brown, Cindy Carnes, Jane Collins, Bryan Cross, Todd Dill, Ralph Feaney, Trina Fentz, Karen Goble, Tammi Hamm, Molly Humbles, Bridget Kelly, Karen Kemerly, Sharon Kemerly, Karen Monday, Anita Poling, Randy Seals, Jim Steele, Frank Troxell, Barry Vail, Don Corzine, Don Arnold, Cindy Bearhope, Richard Byrd, Becky Colson, Robin Dixon, Becky Dolby, Andi Doud, Sandy Ferguson, Pat Gilbert, Debbie Hamm, Mary Hanson, Randy Hayes, Darlene Jones, Dan King, Lisa Leavell, Julie McCurdy, Wes Monday, Mark Mueller, Lynn Rockhill, Terri Rose, Opal Ross, Judy Schutt, Vicki Shaw, Greg Smothers, Pam Snider, Debbie Spencer, Dawn Strange, David West, Duane Bradley, Jill Meeks.

The choir demonstrates fellowship in "Shake Hands."

The musical Hello Dolly and the variety show Spirit and Celebration were two of the major productions that the choir took part in during the year. Other activities included singing and dancing their way into the hearts of the students at the Middle School. Their final performance was at commencement where they added a special musical touch to the ceremonies.

The choir consists of: Linda Musgrave, Robin Roberts, Cindy Armand, Julie Warner, Carmen Meece, Sandy Marks, Debbie Borden, Shelly Pharis, Darcy Whitaker, Lori Ramsey, Patti Kappes, Brenda Whitaker, Donna Rather, Carol Russell, Leiesa Riddle, Teresa Riddle, Diana Barger, Sandy Ferguson, Karen Cecil, Anita Poling, Letha Gruel, Robin Johnson, Cheryl Carpenter, Steve Driscoll, Jim Schutt, Joe Musgrave, Don Corzine, Tammy Warner, Dave Hutsell, Skip Ford, Rick Garner.

Vocal

The new look of the Majorettes was seen frequently as the girls appeared in their new uniforms several times throughout the course of the school year. They performed in the half-time football and basketball shows, the annual Extravaganza and summer shows with the band, which included the Hampton Ball Day Parade and the Delaware County Fair. The Majorettes also gave a splendid portrayal of toys in the Christmas program. The "New Look" also included bicentennial flags and red, white, and blue streamer rings.

The Majorettes are: Lisa Rapp, Martha Brown, Marcia Bennett, Nancy Collier, Janet Matthews, Celia Colvard, Sherry Sargent, Jan Hippelheuser, Marsha Murphy, Cathy Coffman, Shelly Lowder, Karen Juenger, Janet Loucks, Debbie Seeman, Dianne Hippelheuser, Cindy Lamar, Robin Roberts, JoDe Blaker, Judy Alden, Gigi Carter, Julie Blaker, Donna Rather, Cindy Armand, Sheryl Varnell, Terry Hoover, Kim Roberts.

Bowling

With the help of the Student Council, a bowling league was organized at Hindel's in Indianapolis. Sixty students from Mt. Vernon participated in the intrascholastic league. The team of Herb Kramer, Phil Bailey, Gary Cook, Bill Blanton, and Mike Tatom were MV's representatives against several Indianapolis schools.

If not for the much appreciated efforts of the Audio-Visual Club, the productions of Hello Dolly and The Miracle Worker would never have been the smash hits they undeniably were. A-V members were involved with the technical aspects of staging a performance, such as lighting, audio presentation, and stage maintenance. They also helped with the care and distribution of the projectors and other a-v teaching aids.

Achievers

The National Honor Society had twenty-two members, plus five more seniors and sixteen juniors inducted into it at the end of the year. Along with a 3.25 average, the student must also qualify in the fields of character, leadership, and service.

Hoosier State was an event sponsored by the American Legion at Indiana State University in Terre Haute in June. Delegates were sent by the Legion to learn all about government. A mock election and convention were set up with the delegates taking full charge.

Shown here are Boys' and Girls' State alternates and delegates: alt. Tammy Shultz, alt. Debbie Scott, del. David Hutsell, del. David Stunda, del. Terri Neylon, del. Janet Matthews, alt. Cliff Stevens, alt. Brian Tinnel.

Doors to the past, doors to the present, doors to the future. No matter where doors may lead, they are a beginning. Doors have always been symbols of the unknown. A man's destiny may be changed simply by passing through a door. As America moves ahead, so Mt. Vernon students move into adulthood, armed with the keys of opportunity and knowledge with which to open their own personal doors.

ECHELON

Editor Stunda gives photographer Stevens a lift.

It was fitting that during the year of our nation's 200th birthday, the Echelon staff should add another honor to Mr. Vernon's history. On November 6, 1975, Mt. Vernon High School was admitted to International Quill and Scroll Society for High Journalists. This came about after a copy of the 1975 Echelon was submitted to the University of Iowa for evaluation. After admittance, five Mt. Vernon students were chosen as charter members on the basis of their journalistic work. Initiated on April 12, 1976, were David Stunda, Cliff Stevens, Rick Carter, Jan Hippelheuser, and Jeanne Fenter.

Development

The Office Education Association dealt with the teaching and development of office skills and operations. The members of this group spent two hours each day in the Intensive Lab. Activities the OEA participated in included the sale of Marauder key chains and competition in District, State, and National contests. Based on points earned through participation in chapter activities, the OEA paid airfare, registration, and a portion of the hotel bill for senior members Nancy Collier, Rosie Guajardo, and Peggy Thompson, all of whom attended the National Conference in Topeka, Kansas on May 1-4.

OEA members are: Gretchen Kemerly, Sharon Burk, Debbie Scott, Martha Brown, Joyce Posey, Dennis Campbell, Cindy Darrah, Dana Brewer, Nancy Collier, Donna Prickett, Janet Matthews, Denise Fuchs, Susie Clements, Peggy Thompson, Debbie Harper, Rosie Guajardo, Terri Hamm, Debbie Seeman, sponsor Mrs. Barbara Brown, Susan Blackwell.

FEA members include: sponsor Miss Connie Baker, treas. Susan West, pres. Terri Hamm, historian Tammy Warner, sec. Debbie Reichenbach, v-p Julie Warner, Brian Tinnel, Lori Ramsey, Toby Milner, Phil Darrah, Robin Dixon, Diana Meredith, Jim Schutt, Cheryl Rednour, Carol Edwards, Cindy Armand, Virginia Alford, Carla Butts, Debbie Collins.

Future Educators of America is devoted to the students who are going to college and have an interest in one of the many facets of teaching. Visits to both the blind and deaf schools, a variety show at the Fortville Elementary School, and the annual Practice Teaching Day for junior and senior members at the Middle School were some achievements. Members also served refreshments and acted as Secret Pals to the teachers during FEA Week, April 5-9. The spotlight fell on the future educators on Saturday of that week, as they hosted the State FEA Conference. The cover of their scrapbook won a 2nd place award there, they were the state's 3rd place Honor Chapter, and they were recognized as being the chapter with the highest percentage of members present.

Agriculturalists

Dairy Judging team: Gary Durack, Dan Simmons, Brian Cochard.

Future Farmers of America led the way in agricultural education. Soil, crop, and dairy judging were some categories offered by the local chapter. Gary Durack was a scholarship winner in the Indiana Public Speaking Contest. Leading future farmers attended conferences, going as far as the national FFA convention at Kansas City.

Classic

Though the club was only two years old, that did not stop it from becoming one of the more active extracurricular organizations. Early in the year, Mrs. White and the club took their chariot and entered it in a race around the Circle in Indianapolis. They also took a field trip to Butler University for Classic Day. March 15-19 was designated as Latin week at Mt. Vernon with various activities performed. To top it all off, the club held a Latin banquet in the teacher's lounge on April 21.

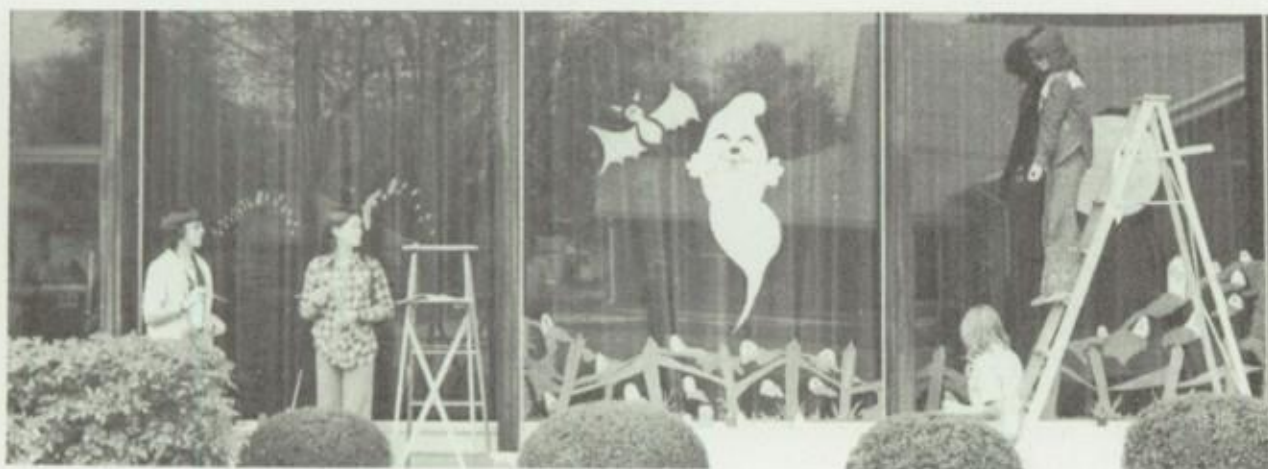

Latin Club members are: Jim Hutsell, David Batta, Diana Brewer, pro consul Kim Roberts, Cindy Armand, Susan West, consul Terry Hoover, Tracy Downing, quaestor Anita Poling, Robin Dixon, Pam Paulick, Dawn Shank, Debbie Sexton, Virginia Alford, Lori Ramsey, Jim Schutt.

The Art Club consists of: sponsor Mrs. Griffy, pres. Brenda Bangel, Gigi Carter, Sharon Monday, Kim Mansour, Tina Smith, Manville Nagle, Tammy Warner, Toby Milner, Monte Dowden, Bev Kindrick.

With several painting projects in its past, the Art Club retained its reputation as the most colorful club in school. During Halloween, the club went into Fortville and decorated many of the businesses' windows. In honor of the bicentennial, club members painted the fire hydrants in Fortville in appropriate fashion. Also, Peggy Little, Skip Ford, and Steve Baker decorated a wall in Mr. Hanson's room with a patriotic mural.

Helpful

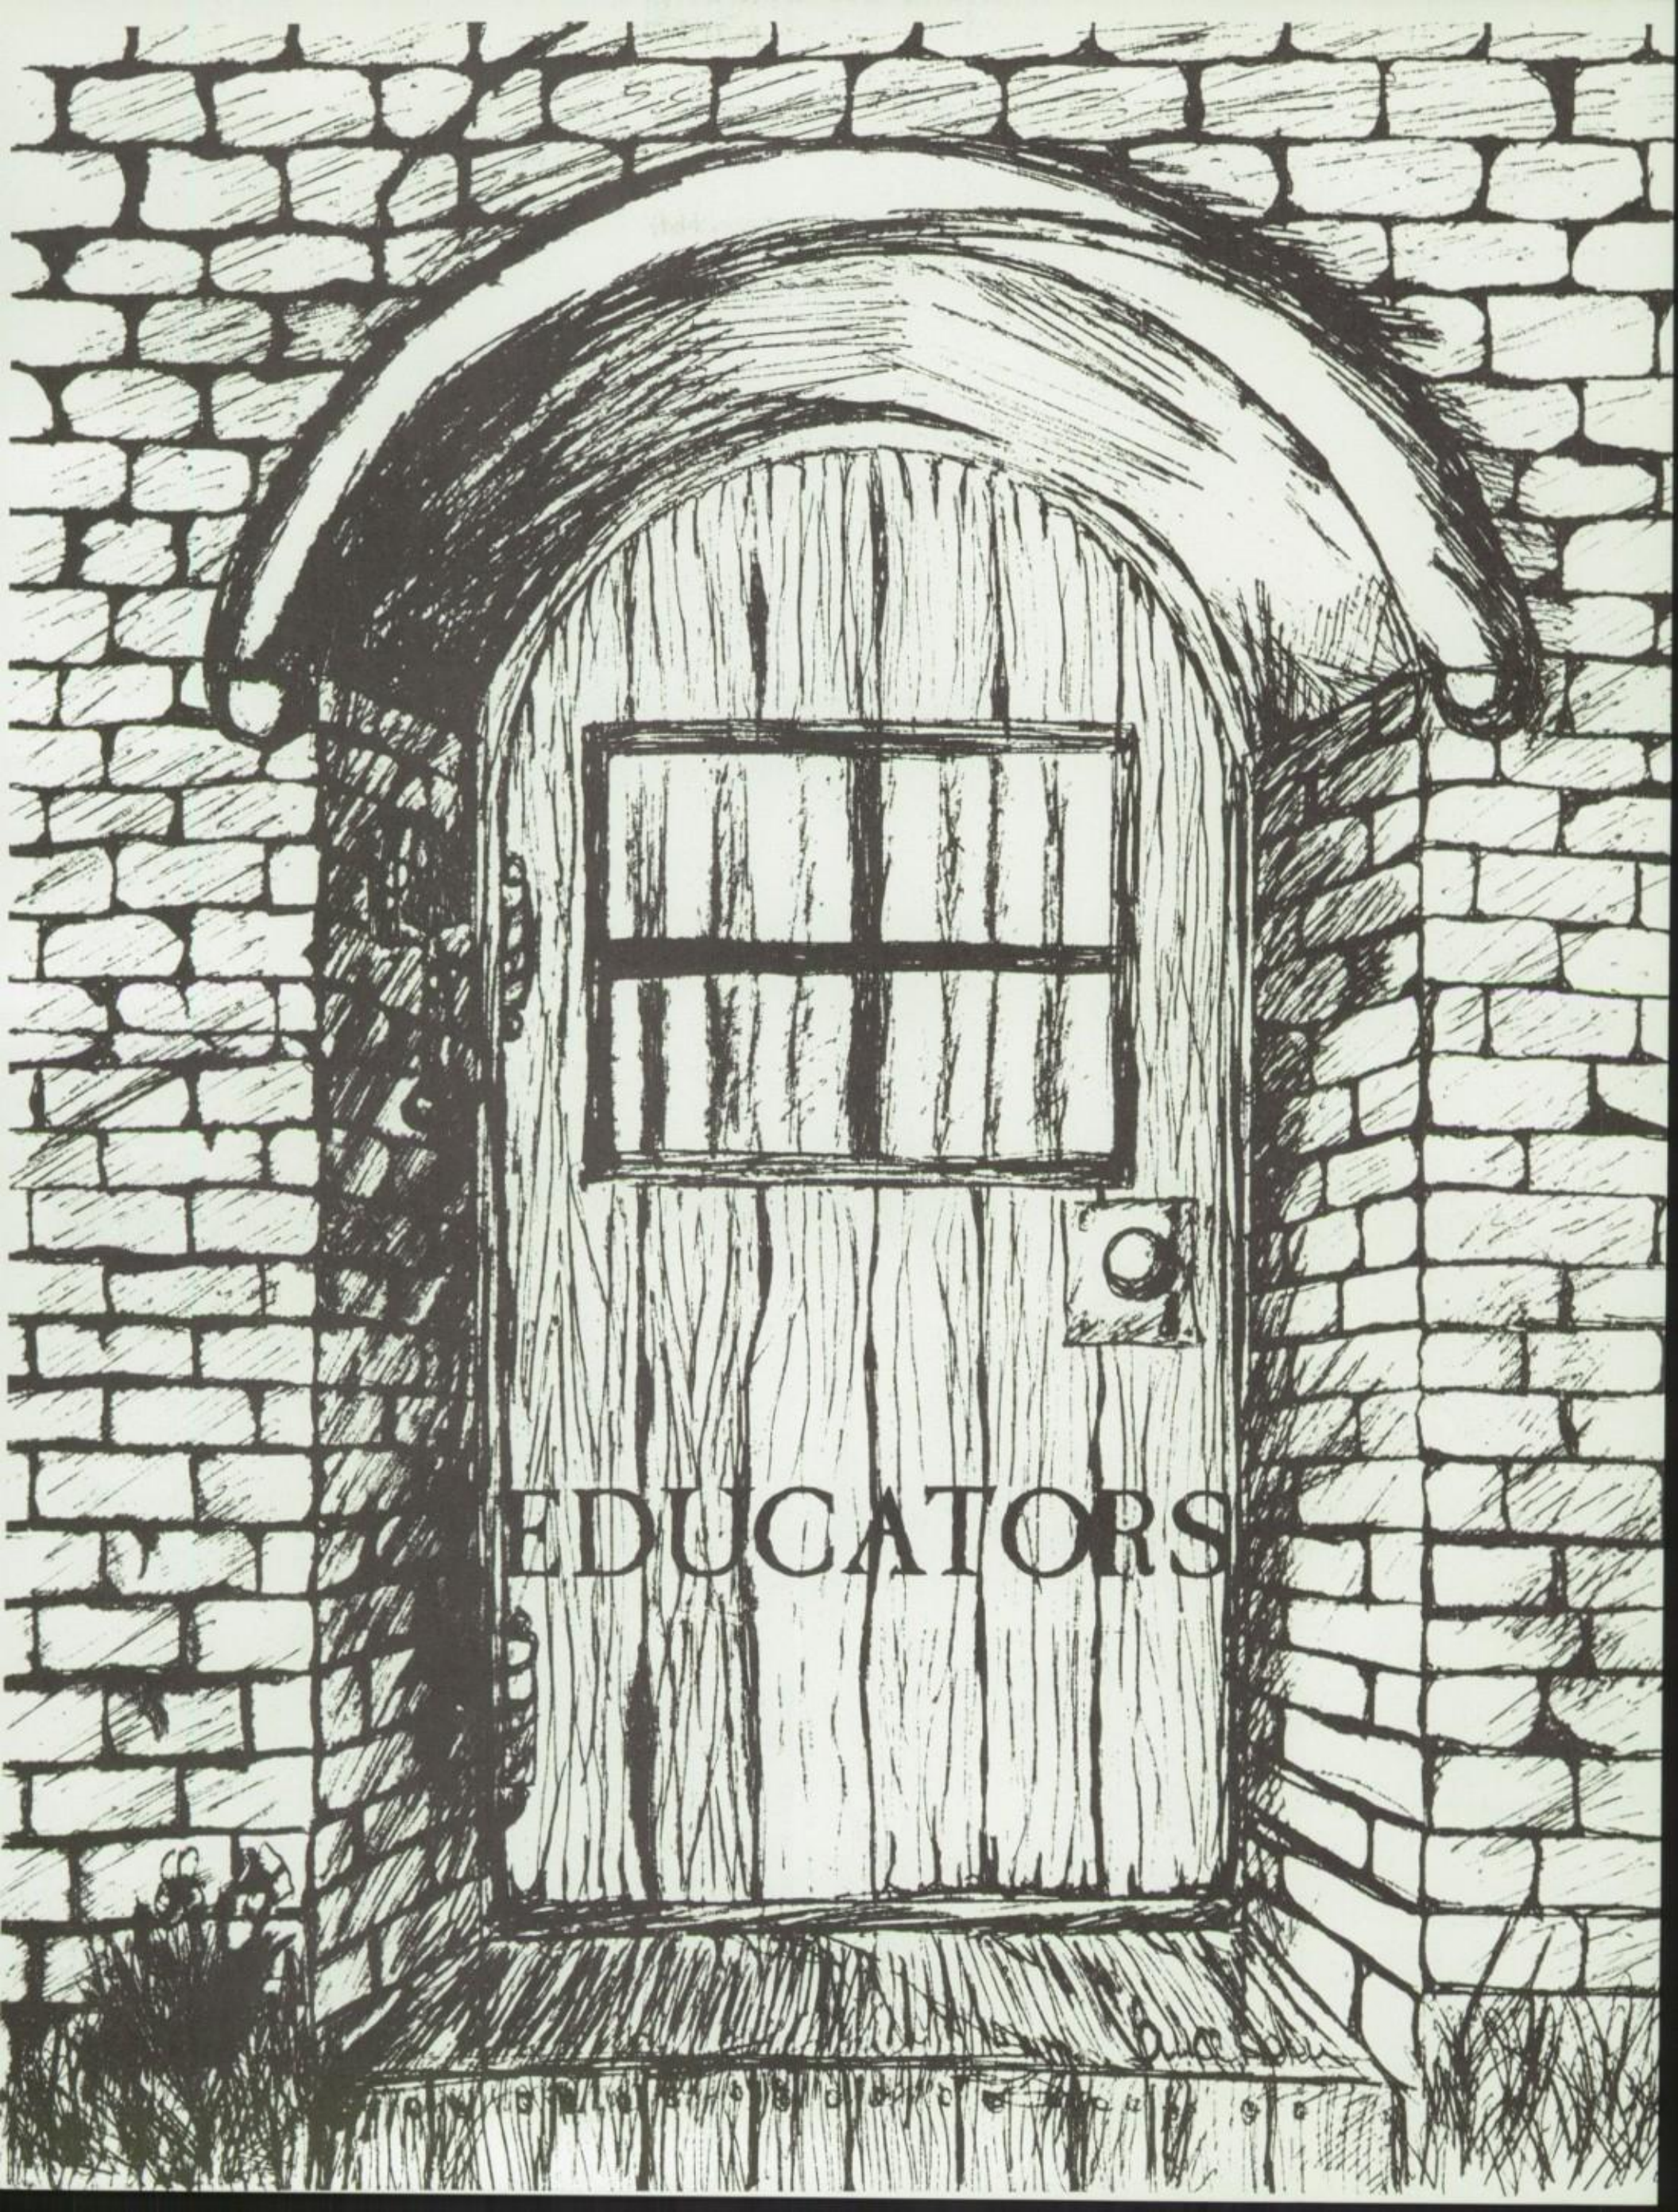

Traditions have been begun by many classes, but the one started by the 1976 Student Council will continue to grow. On April 9, the SC met at the southeast corner of the school and, in keeping with the bicentennial celebration, planted a tulip tree, the official state tree. Each Arbor Day this is to continue with more trees planted, lining the south end of the school. With the senior class' help, the SC also brought the Jason Beckett band to the school for a concert.

The Student Council is: Darcy Whitaker, Herb Kramer, Mona Manis, Lana Tuttle, David Stunda, treas. Joyce Posey, pres. Mike Hartman, sec. Marie Brown, v-p Bill Bolander, Steve Baker, Toby Milner, Amy Wood, Manuel Ramirez, Christie Denton.

Office Cadets are: Debbie Sexton, Stacey Penman, Marcia Bennett, Debbie Wright, Sherry Russell, Susan Blackwell, Karen Cecil, Tammy Warner, Jane Young, Jane Collins, Cody Kirkbride, Jesse Reed, Brian Cochard, Bill Bolander, Joyce Posey, Celia Colvard, Pam Prickett, Rosie Guajardo, Regina Kilgore, Rene Collins, Valerie Salzmann, Dianne Driscoll, Martha Brown.

Acting normally are Mary Ann Wilkin and Gary Ooley, Class Clowns.

Bill Bolander puts the bite on Joyce Posey, both of whom were voted to have the Best Personality.

Most Masculine Jaime Arnett is all washed up as Most Feminine Marcia Bennett orders him around.

With no alternative but to work their ways up, Most Likely To Succeed are Gary Durack and Debbie Wright.

Looking to the end of their high school days, the class of '76 chose red, white, and blue as commencement colors. They demonstrated the American spirit in selecting "Free to be what I want to be with the hope of becoming what I was intended to be" as their class motto. As the uppermost classmen they enjoyed their reign. Behind them were freshmen anxiety, sophomore growing pains, and junior headaches. Before them lay the future, bright or dim; it now rests in their hands.

Left are the class representatives. They are: Lana Tuttle, Girls Rep.; Tammy Shultz, Sec.; Steve Baker, Pres.; Beth Brown, VP; Lori Blake, Treas.; and David Stunda, Boys Rep.

1976 approached rapidly with the prospects of next year's graduating class becoming upperclassmen. With new privileges came the inherited responsibilities of financing the Junior-Senior Prom. To build up their treasury, juniors, under the leadership of class officers, Mrs. Bartley and Mr. Oden, sold subscriptions to the Fortville Tribune. Many juniors became salespersons and offered in various neighborhoods a handy-dandy household product called "Rex". To increase their funds, the class of 1977 spent a long, spirited, but exciting twenty-four hours in their volleyball marathon.

Brown and buckskin became the familiar colors of the class of 78 as they chose class jackets. With body of brown, and arms and lettering in a lighter tan, the 78'ers were now distinguished from every one else. Struggles grew lighter now as the sophomores approached the halfway point. Moving to the middle of their high school career many found recognition in sports, scholastics, and other club activities. One highlight of the sophomore calendar was a variety show in January. Early in the fall the sophomores also sponsored a car wash.

Officers for 1976 included: Jon Kelly, V P; Toby Milner, Boys Rep.; Amy Wood, Girls Rep.; Angie Rees, Sec.; Herb Kramer, Pres.; Kevin DeaKyne, Treas.

FRESHMEN

With the transition from junior to senior high school, the class of 1979 warily viewed their futures as students of Mt. Vernon. Aside from the customary asking directions and trying to open the wrong lockers, freshmen attempted to muddle through maps and class schedules. After becoming masters at obtaining the sunny dispositions of their instructors, Mt. Vernon's new students soon settled down into their regular personalities. Obligations and responsibilities grew, and freshmen steadily became assimilated into Mt. Vernon's culture. Hopes of success followed the class of 1979 as they took their first steps into a new way of life.

Freshman officers from top center, clockwise are: Pres., Christie Denton; Treas., Nick Braun; Girls Rep., Darcy Whitaker; V.P., Rick Kramer, Sec., Alicia Noppenburger; Boys Rep., Manuel Ramirez.
